

Boomerang Labs presents

' Entrepreneurs at Home, Drinking... '

episode #1

Tom Szaky

at Home,

Drinking ...

24th April
8 pm (AEST)

Tom Szaky, called the 'Google of Garbage', is the founder & CEO of TerraCycle.

From his university dorm room in 2001 he founded TerraCycle, a company that recycles unrecyclable waste, and now operates in 21 countries. In 2019 at the World Economic Forum in Davos he launched 'Loop' a global circular shopping platform. Tom has written four books, starred in his own reality tv series and he has received hundreds of awards for his efforts in entrepreneurship and sustainability.

Grab a drink & join us for a fun and interesting talk about how Tom started and continues to grow his business.
